Extra-large special

Munich and surrounding area

This special tells you all you need to know about the latest property projects in the Bavarian capital, the merits of its prime locations, the attractive surrounding area and much more. It includes facts and figures on the city, and features properties currently on the market. We will be partnering with Deutsche Bank on this special, and BELLEVUE 06/2010 will be distributed to their private banking clients.

Around the globe

Real estate for equine enthusiasts

Due to the resounding success of last year's special, we have decided to repeat our report on properties for horse lovers. We will again be featuring a wide range of properties, tips and reports aimed at equine enthusiasts. We will be cooperating once again with Performance Sales International, the world's largest and most exclusive private auction for show jumping and dressage horses. Organized by Ullrich Kasselman and Paul Schöckemöhle, 2009's event raised around 10.4 million euros from the sale of 47 horses. The next auction will take place on 11/12 December in Ankum (near Osnabrück). Buyers will be attending from all four corners of the globe and we have the opportunity of distributing and displaying BELLEVUE 06/2010 to this exclusive audience.

Germany

Restoration using original materials on Sylt

Restoring buildings tends to be easier if working with new supplies. However, in order to maintain the authentic feel of the property, it can be necessary to search out original materials. BELLEVUE will spotlight the restoration of a reed-thatched cottage on the north German island of Sylt, while revealing tips from architects and developers.

Spain

Vineyard for sale in Majorca

Vineyards in Majorca only rarely come on the market – and when they do, they tend to have a high price tag. In this issue, BELLEVUE will feature a 3.5 hectare vineyard for sale at Binissalem. Wine has been produced here for many years – with a number of 50-year-old bottles from the estate still in existence. Anyone who has ever dreamed of cultivating their own wine in Majorca cannot afford to miss this report.

Portugal

News from the Algarve

The sunshine coast on Europe's southwest tip is a classic location for upmarket holiday properties. Briefly shaken by the economic turbulence of the last few years, the market is now beginning to stabilize again. Demand is growing, particularly from Germany, as developers are offering first-class properties at attractive prices. BELLEVUE will feature new projects and the most beautiful country houses on the market in the Algarve.
